MISS BENNETT'S PETITE STAKES.

All true lovers of racing like to see high-class horses in contention and Miss Bennett's name among the entries in the Petite Stakes at Harlem yesterday proved a great drawing card and the new grand stand was filled to overflowing.

The Petite Stakes is for two-year-old fillies at five furlongs and was worth $1,150, of which $875 went to the winner. There were six named to start through the entry box Wednesday night, but the presence of Miss Bennett frightened Princess Tatyana, Sculptress and Fridolin out, leaving but three in, Miss Bennett, Bonnie Lisak and Fancy Wood, to start.

It was a foregone conclusion that Miss Bennett would win the stake, despite the fact that she had to carry 120 pounds, but few, if any, of her stanch admirers thought she would show such a high turn of speed as she did. Crowhurst, who rides for G. C. Bennett, came up from St. Louis especially to pilot the filly, and he succeeded in getting her away fully in her stride, and that was all there was to it. Down the backstretch the handsome daughter of Russell—Memoria fairly flew. She stepped the first furlong in 11½ seconds, went to the quarter in 23½, and, leading by ten lengths, clicked off the half in 47 flat. This dazzling turn of speed made the other two starters dizzy, and, pulled to a walk, Miss Bennett stepped the final furlong in 13 seconds, thereby negotiating the five furlongs in 1 minute, which was one of the best performances from a time standpoint seen around here this season. Speculation on the stake race was very light. Miss Bennett was at the prohibitive price of 1 to 5, and few, if any, cared to bet on her at that price and none would bet against her.

Pink Coat, who seems to be in his best form at present, was in a soft spot in the second race, but for some unknown reason the ring took liberties with him and laid the tempting price of 4 to 5 against him. The 1898 American Derby winner was much the best of the ordinary lot he was in with and had to be to win. Mr. Dwyer sent him away last, hardly striding, while Boney Boy and Miss Mae Day, both quick breakers, were away in front "winging." All down the backstretch Pink Coat was many lengths behind the leaders, but on the far turn he began to move forward and when the stretch was reached he loomed up in front, eventually winning hard held by about three lengths.

There was a speedy lot of sprinters entered in the third event which furnished one of the hottest betting races of the season. Hilee, Sly and John A. Morris were all supposed to be "good things," but none of the trio could make good, the winner turning up in The Lady in Blue, who set a clicking pace and outlasted the natural favorite, John A. Morris, at the end. Hilee finished third and Sly nowhere.

Cogmoosey, at the royal price of 8 to 5, came home by himself in the fifth race. This horse is a bad betting proposition in as much as he has bad legs and is liable to break down at any time and is also a bad actor at the post. He managed to get away well, however, in this race and his "dickey" legs held out long enough for him to win but just after passing the wire he went down and pulled up a sorry looking sight on three legs.

Mr. Brenock's horses have the habit of winning the first time out and in the last race Dagmar scored handsomely at 10 to 1 for the genial old turfman.

Jockeys H. Stuart and Enos, both good boys in excellent standing, are recent additions to the riding talent. H. Stuart can ride at about ninety pounds and is a boy with a good pair of hands. There is a scarcity of good jockeys around Chicago at present and both Enos and Stuart should do well.

In the case of jockey Bloss, ruled off at Lake-side in November 1899, the judges have decided to reinstate Bloss temporarily. He will ride on probation, and if he meets the requirements of the judges his temporary re-instatement will be made permanent.

Presiding judge Hamilton and his associates at Harlem, are not satisfied with the ride which Rose gave John A. Morris yesterday and they have the jockey under investigation.

Jockey Winkfield, who sustained bruises in a race at Harlem Wednesday, is rapidly recovering, and will accept mounts next Monday.

The following horses were sold in the paddock at Harlem yesterday at auction: Jolly Roger, b. c, by 4, by Order—Happy Sally II.; Jim W., b. c, 4, by Fordham—Laura Allen. Both of these were formerly owned by R. Tucker. Jolly Roger was sold to S. M. Tichenor for $5,000 and Jim W. was knocked down to J. J. Marklein for $250. Sam Fullen, b. c, 3, by Cavalier—Lena Oliver, formerly the property of Wood Hoffman, was sold to Frank Phillips for $2,000.

Radical steps were taken yesterday by the Harlem officials to restrain tipsters and touts from peddling their "information" on any of the transportation lines leading to the track. Special policemen will be detailed on all trains with orders to put a stop to this nuisance.

Hansford, which won at 30 to 1 on Wednesday at Harlem, was sold yesterday by Oots Bros. to W. H. May & Son at private sale.

Rome Respass, at private terms, bought Onomastus and Cambrian from W. H. Laudeman yesterday at Harlem.

CROWHURST'S LICENSE LIMITED.

COVINGTON, KY., August 9.—At the request of the St. Louis Jockey Club the license committee has limited R. Crowhurst's license so as to ride for his contract employer only.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Sandringham, the horse lately imported from England by John E. Madden, is resting at the American Horse Exchange before continuing his journey to Hamburg Farm, Ky. Apart from the fact that this horse formerly belonged to the Prince of Wales, his relationship to the Derby winners, Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee, makes him a valuable addition to the sires in the country. He is a big, heavy topped brown horse with black points and stands fully 16.3 hands high. He is so compactly built that standing a little way from him he does not give the idea of being so large. He has plenty of bone, without any useless timber, nice flat legs and short joints. A beautifully sloping shoulder, a back capable of packing any weight and quarters which are a credit to St. Simon are most noticeable. As a yearling he split his pastern, and, though he was trained, he never started in a race—New York Herald.

Mr. Charles H. Smith has been truly unfortunate in having to suffer the loss of His Excellency and the enforced retirement of Lieutenant Gibson and Donald Bain, and is justly entitled to the sympathy that is extended to him from all quarters. But Mr. Smith is too truly a thoroughbred sportsman to quit because mischances such as all horse owners have to endure at times have befallen him. There are other good horses to be had and he will no doubt acquire them in time. Garry Hermann is in line of promise for next year's American Derby and that is something in the way of consolation and hopefulness.

When the bugle blew for the first race one would think that Master of the Foxhounds Bratton had unleashed his pack of sixty dogs

Time, 2:51, 50. 1:16, 1:43.

Winner—Ch. c, by Hermencia—Grecia. Went to post at 2:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won all out; second easily. Hermencia was the best. He ran wide on the first turn and carried Zazanene out with him and then was cut off on the stretch turn and finished on the outside. He only got up in the last stride. It was a weak finish on Mound Builder. Sauce Boat tired badly in the last quarter. Zazanene did not run to the mark.

Scratched—19863 Knowle, 100.

Overweights—Sauce Boat, 14 pounds; Duffield, 2.

Hermencia, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Mound Builder, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Sauce Boat, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Time, 2:31, 49½, 1:02.

Winner—Blk. f, by Loantaka—Elite. Went to post at 3:27. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lizzie A. and Matanzas outbroke the others at the start. The former had the most speed and ran away from her field on the turn, winning as she pleased. Matanzas was as easily second best. Bill Massie was stopping and barely lasted long enough to get third place. It was a weak ride on Ida Quicklime.

Lizzie A., place, 3 to 5; show, out. Matanzas, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Bill Massie, place, evens; show, out. Ida Quicklime, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

*Ran previously as Dream Light.

Winner—B. f, by Longfish—Halloween.

Went to post at 4:03. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second all out. Toad Rainey outclassed her company and came away when ready. Dream Life showed speed to the stretch but was tiring badly at the end. Pierre Jr. would have been second in a dozen more strides. Lightning Flash is a very bad actor at the post. She caused the accident to Thoughtful.

Scratched—19828 Prince of Song, 105; 19828 Handit, 102.

Overweights—Lightning Flash, 4 pounds.

Toad Rainey, place, out. Dream Life, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Pierre Jr., place, evens.

Time, 1:11, 23½, 49½, 1:14½.

Winner—B. m, by Emperor—Sif. Went to post at 4:44. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Annie Lauretta ran a good race and drew away on call in the last eighth. Glad Hand took the shortest route, but was tiring at the end. Jennie and Sagacity were raced to weariness in front. By George was outrun in the first part of the race, but was coming strongly at the finish.

Scratched—(19866) Momentum, 110; 19775 Trocha, 107; 19863 Viola K., 102.

Overweights—Infelice, 3 pounds.

Annie Lauretta, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Glad Hand, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Jennie, show 1 to 2. By George, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

on the track. It was a swell lot of St. Bernards.
Miss Whitney, who awards bench show medals to dogs of that breed, should have taken Judge Murphy's position in the stand. As they passed the clubhouse turn the cats ran hissing up the fences, and their tails grew thick as Fred Cook's bankroll. Iris was the best of the bunch and won handily, with the entire pack driving after her for feed money. The ride that Corner gave Eleanor Holmes was enough to get him shot.
A match race between Lee Bruno and Aunt Mary, four-mile heats, welter weight, with Corner and R. Smith up, would be a card for your life.—St. Louis Republic.

The welcome news reached Brighton Beach
Monday by cable that J. E. McDonald's Rensselaer had completed a brilliant foreign campaign by an impressive victory on Sunday in the Grand Prix de Ostend, one of the great annual events run in Belgium. The race was at one mile and a quarter and was worth about $14,000 to the winner, who was ridden in masterly style by the veteran British jockey, Tommy Loates. Some of the best cup horses on the European circuit finished behind him, and Owner McDonald has decided to retire him on his laurels and bring him back to this country for stud purposes.

Rensselaer is an American-bred chestnut horse by Hayden Edwards—The Belle and is now a six-year-old. As a three and four-year-old here he showed high quality, but as his forte seemed to be over longer routes than can be found every week in America, he was shipped to England and trained for hurdle racing.

Both over the sticks and on the flat he acquitted himself with marked credit, especially where the conditions called for welter weights and supreme endurance. He retires with an enviable record, and is just one of the type needed to improve the stamina of the native thoroughbred.—New York Sun.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The attention of owners and trainers is called to the fact that three events for the autumn meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club close on Tuesday, August 14. They are the Woodstock Stakes (to be run Tuesday, August 28), for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs on turf; the Oriole Stakes (to be run Friday, September 7), for two-year-olds, last six furlongs of New Futurity Course, and the Inaugural Steeplechase (to be run Saturday, August 25).

Mr. Pierre Lorillard has decided to send Maher over to England on September 1. The horses that he intends shipping abroad will not be sent until later, and David Garrick will be among the number.

hot pace that Ralston set told on him in the last eighth and he was tiring at the finish. Left Bower ran a good race and finished strongly. Quavar was in a tight place next to the rail in the last eighth. The winner was run up $100 and bought in.

Overweights—Cavotte, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Belvidere—Virgie D.
Went to post at 2:15. Off at the second break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were under keen pressure. Silurian was the best and won without an effort. Rumor has it that he out-worked all of the other two-year-olds of Pat Dunne's. Shut Up broke well in his stride and displayed a lot of speed. He stopped and came again in the stretch. Cinera improved suddenly, and, considering the bad luck she had, she ran a good race. Kohnrweath quit badly at the end and made a poor showing. Hermantown, well backed, showed a flash of early speed.
Silurian, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 1. Shut Up, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Cinera, show, 4 to 1. Kohnrweath, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. h. by Leonatus—Alice Brand.
Went to post at 2:50. Off at the first break to a poor start. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. Pink Coat again showed his high quality. He was worsted at the start and seemed hopelessly out of it when going down the backstretch, but on the far turn he made a spurt and had little or no trouble in getting to the front. Star Chamber ran a good race. Boney Boy and Miss Mae Day raced each other into weariness in the first part of the race and when the pinch came neither had anything left to finish with.
Pink Coat, place, out. Star Chamber, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Boney Boy, show, evens. Miss Mae Day, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Himyar—British Blue Blood.
Went to post at 3:25. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won driving hard; second, third and fourth were under keen pressure. The Lady in Blue got away fully in her stride, was lucky, well ridden and outgamed John A. Morris when the pinch came. The latter is a fast horse, but possesses little or no stamina. Hilee had a rough journey. He was also all tangled up at the start and generally poorly handled. Goebel ran a good race and made a strong bid at the end. Sly seems to be out of form entirely. Nobleman had no chance from where he got away. Passe showed some speed.
Scratched—19770 L. T. Caton, 102.
Overweights—Goebel, 2 pound.
The Lady in Blue, place, 4 to 1; show, 7 to 5. John A. Morris, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Hilee, show, 1 to 2. Sly, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Russell—Memoria.
Went to post at 4:05. Off at the first break to a good start. Won pulled up; second whipped out. Miss Bennett is a speed marvel and undoubtedly the best two-year-old filly in training in the west today. She fairly flew in the first part of the journey and pulled up fresh and good without taking a long breath. Bonnie Lissak ran a smashing good race for her. Fancy Wood seemed dull of speed and hardly ran her race.
Scratched—19732 Princess Tatyana, 109; 19293 Sculptress, 103; 19698 Fridolin, 103.
Miss Bennett, place, out. Bonnie Lissak, place, 7 to 5; show, out. Fancy Wood, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Teuton—Marion C.
Went to post at 4:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; second and third were hard at it. Cogmoosey wheeled and broke flying and won all the way. He went lame in the race and pulled up in bad condition on three legs. Owensboro was lucky and ran a good race. Papa Harry got into a bad jam on the first turn and was almost thrown. Otherwise he would have given the winner a stout argument. Miss Liza made up much ground in the stretch. Irish Jewel had no chance with the ride he got. Parmenion was prominent in the first part of the race but tired in the stretch and can do better.
Cogmoosey, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Owensboro, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Papa Harry, show, 3 to 1. Parmenion, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Little Minch—Ivy Benjamin.
Went to post at 5:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive; second, third and fourth were doing their best. Dagmar was fit and ready, but barely lasted long enough to win. He was all out when he hit the stretch, but hung on gamely under pressure. Dad Steele took the shortest route and had no excuses. Tim Gainney was the best and should have won with ease. He was bumped and jostled at every turn and never really got clear sailing until the stretch was reached, then he finished with a tremendous rush. Baird ran a fair race. So did Nan O Kee. Tyrba was right there for the first three-quarters, but quit in the stretch.
Overweights—Sorrel Rose, 3 pounds.
Dagmar, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Dad Steele, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Tim Gainney, show, 1 to 2. San Venado, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Pardee—Katie Creel.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Tigris finished strongly but was straight as a string to win. Monaghan ran his best race. Loka closed with a rush and with a better ride could have won. Kid McCoy quit in the last sixteenth. Mandamus had a rough journey.

Tigris, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Monaghan, place, 15 to 1; show, 8 to 1. Loka, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Stonehenge—Chemise.

Went to post at 3:13. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Chemisette showed the most speed, got away well and never was in danger. Amelia Strathmore ran well and finished with a rush. Water Crest ran as if slightly short and will probably do better when next out. Terralene was poorly ridden.

Scratched—Irena, 95.

Overweights—Terralene, 5 pounds; Moss Rose, 3; Silky, 4.

Chemisette, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Amelia Strathmore, place, 2 1/2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Water Crest, show, evens. Terralene, place, 6 to 5; show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by The Chevalier—Florine.

Went to post at 3:44. At post 20 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Orleans got away well, had clear going, showed the most speed and never was in danger. Pirate's Daughter finished strongly. Seething ran surprisingly well. The Butcher ran away three miles in false breakaways and Scorpolette ran one mile. Quick Range made an effort at the far turn but tired and quit badly.

Orleans, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Pirate's Daughter, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Seething, show, 2 1/2 to 1. Quick Range, place, out.

Winner—Br. f. by Wadsworth—Clean Heels.

Went to post at 5:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Orris is a stayer and was best and finished swinging. Round Turn also stayed well and made a great effort in the last half, but could never get near Orris. Lurdan ran a fairly good race. Nan Dora and Joe Doughty found the route too long.

Overweights—Orris, 3 pounds; Joe Doughty, 2; Rubel, 4.

Orris, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Round Turn, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Lurdan, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—Br. m. by Quicklime—Elsie S.

Went to post at 5:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Eight bells improved sharply and ran an impressive race, winning as she pleased. Insurgent got off poorly, made up much ground and finished fast. Al Lone ran a fairly good race under a poor ride. Doralice ran a poor race. Nadrone was cut down.

Overweights—Al Lone, 2 pounds; Pomelia, 3.

Eight Bells, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Insurgent, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Al Lone, show, 4 to 5. Doralice, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Time, 1:21, 2:44, 4:01, 1:02, 1:09.

Winner—Ch. c. by Fonso—Jennie Lee.
Went to post at 1:40. At post 22 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Fonslee's win was lucky. He was off in the front rank and was well handled by O'Connor, but he was all out at the end. Cupidity with an even break would have won. As it was she should have won, but Shaw's finish was a weak one. The weight told on MacFlecknoe in the final drive. Mordelmo had mischances. Bullman was responsible for the long delay at the post as he refused to break. Fleuron was given a bad ride by Burns. Unslightly was interfered with several times in the race. Betsy Jane ran away five and a half furlongs in a false break. Carbuncle ran a good race from tenth position and was closing strongly.

Scratched—19746 Nabockish, 108; 19294 News, 98.

Overweights—Turney, 2; pounds.

Fonslee, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Cupidity, place, 2 to 1; show, 8 to 5. MacFlecknoe, show, 7 to 5. Fleuron, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Time, 1:21, 2:44, 3:71, 50, 1:02, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. c. by Belvidere—Madge Stuart.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Far Rockaway should have won. He was away poorly, interfered with right after the start and had to go all around his field. In addition, Shaw rode a weak finish on him. Bellario was given a good ride by McCue, who took the shortest way and rode a good, strong finish. Gold Heels seemed likely to win until near the finish, when he tired. Maddie did not run to his best form. Luke Ward closed strongly in the stretch and then tired at the end. Drogheda ran prominently to the stretch under a pull, but quit when called upon. The others did not show to advantage.

Scratched—19781 Scurry, 11; 18963 Suzon, 101.

Bellario, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Far Rockaway, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Gold Heels, show, 3 to 5. Maddie, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Luke Ward, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Islington—Songstress.
Went to post at 3:03. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. The start caused Ethelbert's defeat. When the flag went down the field was all strung out. Kinley Mack also off badly, was about six lengths before him. McCue rode a patient race on the winner and made his move at the right time. Ethelbert made up the lost ground gradually and seemed like the winner at the furlong post. He hung a trifle and then came again. Kinley Mack was doing his best all through the last furlong. Martimas ran a good race and will be worth watching in a little lower company. Mr. Jersey ran well for six furlongs. Charentus only showed speed for a quarter and then dropped out of it. Rockton's race was not his true form. He was under a pull to the stretch and then died away.

Scratched—19641 Bannockburn, 117; (19813) David Garrick, 103.

Kinley Mack, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Ethelbert, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Martimas, show, 2 to 5. Rockton, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Tenny—Puffer.
Went to post at 3:37. At post 7 minutes. Three breaks. Start bad. Won handily; second easily. Cherries was much the best in the race although Bullman rode her out to the finish. Goddess of Night ran well. Himself beat the flag and then stumbled on the turn, was then crowded into the fence and went back to eighth position. He closed strongly in the stretch and might have won but for the accident. There were no excuses for Billionaire who had things all his way if he had been good enough to win. Miss Daniels, off last, closed up a lot of ground. The Brother had a rough journey.

Scratched—19826 Tammany Chief, 107; 19717 Infalible, 107; 19826 The Jade, 104; 19715 Historian, 104; 19793 Alea, 101.

Cherries, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Goddess of Night, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Himself, show, 3 to 5. Billionaire, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Time, 12, 25, 51, 1:04, 1:17, 1:43.

Winner—Ch. h. by Hayden—Ovirlace.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Remp, off last, went all around the field and took the lead in the stretch and was doing his best all the way. With a better rider Osceola would have won. Brien could only sit still, the colt doing the rest. Myth had a hard time of it, was shut out twice, but closed strongly and would have won in three more strides. Orion was given a poor ride by Meade. Flamaro will probably do better. Stamp was outclassed.

Remp, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Osceola, place, 5 to 1; show, 21 to 1. Myth, show, 3 to 5. Billy Owens, place, 9 to 10; show, 2 to 5. Flamaro, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Time, 2:51, 50, 1:16, 1:42.

Winner—Ch. h. by Deceiver—Mamie Cole.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Meggs came very fast at the finish and won as he should have done. He was the best of a bad lot. Rathlin showed early speed, but weakened at the end. Rebecca Wells was always a contender up to the last eighth, where she tired. Charley Shane showed his usual early speed, but quit at the finish.

Scratched—19833 Minnie Burns, 105; 19874 Charley Estes, 105; 19833 Divertissement, 105; 19801 Alva II., 105; 19801 Doc Farrish, 105.

Overweights—Charley Shane, 3 pounds; Chanton, 2.

Meggs, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Rathlin, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Rebecca Wells, show, 1 to 2. Colbert, place, 2 to 1; show, evens.

Winner—Br. f. by Favor—Charity.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Emma C. L. awoke suddenly, ran a good race, came through the stretch and won without trouble. Little Henry seems to stop no matter how short the distance is. Frequent closed fast at the end. Side Light stopped badly in the stretch. Kid Hampton ran fairly well only.

Scratched—19656 Maggie Young, 105.
